Agreement to use image, voice, biographical material and other information

CONDITIONS OF USE FORM: OVERVIEW

Purpose

In order to more widely share presentations made at its events, the History Council of New South Wales records sessions and disseminates them through its various communication channels. These may include our own webpage and social media accounts.

This form is to seek your informed consent for the recording and reuse of your presentation at a History Council event. This could include recordings of your voice, photographs, video and Powerpoint or other slides.

Any of your original material will be attributed to you as the creator and you can place restrictions on the retention and use of the material, including indicating that you do not wish to be recorded.
